WAYNE ZION LUTHERAN CHURCH February 8, 2026 FIFTH SUNDAY AFTER EPIPHANY

Pastor: Phil Jorgensen
Ministers: All Members

Denotes the invitation to stand as you are able*

INTRODUCTION

Light shines in the darkness for the upright, the psalmist sings. Isaiah declares that when we loose the bonds of injustice and share our bread with the hungry, the light breaks forth like the dawn. In another passage from the Sermon on the Mount, Jesus, the light of the world, calls his followers to let the light of their good works shine before others. Through baptism we are sent into the world to shine with the light of Christ.

BAPTISM Rowan Jae Newhard P. 227

WORD

FIRST READING Lisa Farley, lector

Shortly after the return of Israel from exile in Babylon, the people were troubled by the ineffectiveness of their fasts. God reminds them that outward observance is no substitute for genuine fasting that results in acts of justice, such as feeding the hungry, sheltering the homeless, and clothing the naked.

Word of God. Word of Life. Thanks be to God.

PSALM the congregation will read the psalm responsively

SECOND READING

Though people such as the Corinthians are enamored with human philosophy and wisdom, Paul continuously presents God's hidden wisdom which is Jesus Christ crucified. True spiritual maturity involves judging ourselves and others in light of God's revelation in the cross.

Word of God. Word of Life. Thanks be to God.

 GOSPEL ACCLAMATION P. 216

 GOSPEL
